An organization is only as strong as its network of suppliers. This statement holds particularly true as the global economy marches forward and supply chains evolve in response. This progress, however, brings complexities and new risk factors that organizations need to constantly monitor and mitigate.

The indispensability of supplier workforce visibility cannot be overstated, especially in an era when organizations are required to manage complex, cross-border supply chains. Supply chain workers without the right qualification, training and credentials can bring with them unwanted risks which often go unnoticed. On the one hand, these workers may become vulnerable to workplace injuries without the right knowledge of executing a task. On the other hand, workers without the right skillset or training can hinder productivity which ultimately impacts a company’s bottom-line.

The consequences of non-compliance arising from lack of employee qualifications, expired certifications and inadequate training can be profound:

- Loss of revenue and productivity
- Sanctions and penalties for breaching regulations
- Suspension of work permits and licenses
- Serious injuries, fatalities and potential lawsuits
At Avetta, we understand that every supply chain is unique and comes with a diverse range of risk factors. This makes creating a holistic compliance framework a necessity for businesses. This is where Avetta One provides answers.

Avetta One is the industry’s largest Supply Chain Risk Management (SCRM) platform. The platform comes with advanced workforce management features that empower suppliers and clients to determine the set competencies required for each role and worker delivering services.

With Avetta One, you can easily map worker roles to the competency and training required to conduct a job safely and efficiently. Additionally, the system also verifies worker training, certifications, and qualifications so you can stay assured that qualified workers are conducting work for your business.
